

- There are two buttons (or One Text box) on pdetail component (child component) which navigate to the previous and next product information.
- i.e. there is no need to go back to the list of product and then load the detail component for any other product.
- Show only two things – product ID and Product name in Product component (parent component) and show the rest details about the product and price in pdetails (child component).